Community Member Use of Library Policy

Overview
Robert H. Parker Library is committed to providing an environment which supports and encourages learning and research by students, staff and faculty members. However, as participants in the Delaware Library Catalog, we also serve members of the public in a limited capacity.

Rules - Adults
- Anyone with a Delaware Library Catalog card may borrow circulating items from the library, both in person and by placing a hold on the item.
- Print library materials may be used by anyone onsite.
- Anyone who behaves in a disruptive manner may be given a warning or asked to leave the library, depending on the severity of the offense. If necessary, security will be called.

Rules - Children
- Children with a Delaware Library Catalog card may borrow circulating items from the library, both in person and by placing a hold on the item.
- Parker library maintains a curriculum collection. Children may use books from this collection onsite.
- Children who behave in a disruptive manner may be given a warning or asked to leave the library, depending on the severity of the offense. If necessary, security will be called.
- The care and safety of children using the library are the responsibility of the parent, guardian or caregiver. Library staff will not take responsibility for supervising children.
- Children under the age of 15 must be accompanied by an adult.
