Wesley College Disruptive Behavior Policy

Overview
Robert H. Parker Library is committed to providing an environment which supports and encourages learning and research by students, staff and faculty members. It is imperative that all library users help us to maintain this environment.

Noise - Quiet Study Areas
• The first and second floors of the library have been designated for quiet study.
• While in these areas please refrain from the following:
  o Loud talking
  o Cell phone usage
  o Use of audio devices, with or without headphones, which can be heard by others
• Library users who do not abide by this quiet study policy will be asked to be quieter, move to the group study area, or even leave the library. If necessary, security will be called.

Noise - Group Study Area
• The ground floor is designated for group study.
• While in the group study area please respect the needs of others and keep noise levels to a minimum.
• Library users who do not abide by this policy will be asked to be quieter or leave the library. If necessary, security will be called.

Eating and Drinking
• Eating snack foods is allowed in the library, but patrons are expected to clean up after themselves.
• Drinks should be limited to closed containers of non alcoholic beverages.
• Library users who do not abide by this policy will be asked to leave the library. If necessary, security will be called.

Other Disruptive Behavior
• The Student Code of Conduct, as outlined in the Wesley College Student Handbook, is applicable to all patrons of the library. This includes, but is not limited to: sexual harassment, physical harm to others, and vandalism.
• Sports equipment, including but not limited to balls and skateboards, may not be used in the library.
• Library users who do not abide by these policies will be asked to leave the library. If necessary, security will be called.

Policy Adopted: 10/21/15; updated 06/14/16
