Thank you, Veterans!

What are you thankful for this November? Perhaps supportive friends and family whom you rely on without even realizing it?

In honor of Veterans Day, please take some time to stop by the library and write a thank you note to one of the brave men or women whose work at home and abroad is something everyone in our country relies on every day.

Resource of the month:

Have you considered E-books?

Accessible on the library website, these books are fully available online and cover a wide range of topics for your research needs.

All are reliable, scholarly sources and mobile-friendly.

Bonus tip: Citations are easy to copy and paste from any e-book!

To find them, visit the “Electronic Resources” section of the library homepage and click on “Ebrary E-book Collection.”

Plan, don’t cram, @ the study jam!

Finals will be here before you know it! Be sure to have a solid study plan in mind and check out these study tips from the Princeton Review by scanning this code:

On Wed. Nov 29th and Thurs. Nov 30th, from 6 pm - 8 pm, visit ASC and the ground level study areas in the Parker Library for a fun Study Jam session, tutoring, and pizza!!

(Make sure you get a free pizza ticket before the 29th by visiting ASC in PL 107)

Exam Week:
December 4 - 8

Thank you, Veterans!

Our Mission Statement
“The Robert H. Parker Library at Wesley College supports the academic and research success of our students, faculty, and staff, in the liberal arts tradition.”

Time for Spring Registration!
Ready for the holiday season? Not if you haven’t registered for your Spring 2018 classes! Stop by the Academic Advising office in PL 14 to make a plan. Freshman: Come to the Breakfast Blitz at 6am on November 9 (sign-up by Nov. 7) and be first in line to get the classes you need!

November 16 is the LAST DAY to register for all students!

Library Fun Fact!
According to Guinness World Records, the largest overdue fine paid was $345.14 for a book someone had for 47 years!1

Here, you can check out most books for four weeks at a time. Need it longer? Just bring it to the library and renew it or ask how you can renew items online.

Talking Turkey...
The National Turkey Federation (yes, it exists) has this to say about eating turkey:

- In 2016, Americans ate 16.7 lbs of turkey each (on avg.)
- Minnesota continues to produce more turkeys than any other state.
- In 2015, the total turkeys produced was 233,100,000.
