STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

The Wesley College community strives to realize a holistic campus environment of common purpose, caring, tolerance, inclusiveness, responsibility, and service that is the heart of the community. The Student Code of Conduct outlined in this Handbook provides a framework for student behavior and responsibility. Once a student is accepted to Wesley College through the Admissions process, they are considered a “student,” and are subject to the Student Code of Conduct and all Wesley Policies and Procedures. This includes all students on the main campus, as well as students enrolled at Dover Air Force Base (DAFB).

All of the policies in this handbook are subject to change and students should consult the website for the latest policies. These regulations are designed to give students general notice of prohibited conduct and should be read and interpreted broadly, as they are not designed to define the misconduct in exhaustive terms. Each student is expected to be fully aware of the Student Code of Conduct and all published policies, rules, and regulations.

All students are expected and required to obey the law, to comply with the policies of Wesley College and with directives issued by an administrative official in the course of their authorized duties. Students are responsible for complying with the Student Code of Conduct and for representing the College in a positive manner. This expectation includes off-campus conduct that is likely to have an adverse effect on the College or on the educational process. The Student Code of Conduct shall apply to a student’s conduct even if the student withdraws from school while a disciplinary matter is pending. The Wesley College campus is located within the jurisdiction of the Dover Police Department and the Delaware State Police. Students are encouraged to utilize police services when necessary. The College will cooperate with law enforcement agencies in the conduct of their jobs and will not in any way interfere or impede their efforts. It is a violation of the Student Code of Conduct if a student fails to report immediately any serious health or safety risk to the Dover Police, Wesley Security, the Student Affairs Office, or other appropriate college personnel.

Students may be held accountable to local, state, or federal authorities and to the College for acts that constitute violations of federal, state, and/or local laws and College policy. If a student is charged by federal, state or local authorities with a violation of law, the College will not request or agree to special consideration for the individual because of status as a student. Disciplinary proceedings may be instituted against a student charged with conduct that potentially violates both the criminal law and the Student Code of Conduct without regard to pending civil or criminal litigation in court or criminal arrest and prosecution.

Students, as individuals, and collectively, as members of student groups or organizations, are responsible for complying with the established Student Code of Conduct. The officers or leaders of a student group or organization may be directed to take appropriate action designed to prevent or end violations by the group or organization, or by any persons associated with the group or organization, who can reasonably be said to be acting on behalf of the group or organization. Failure to make reasonable efforts to comply with such a directive will be considered a violation in itself, both by the officers, leaders or organization, and by the group or organization itself.

Coverage

The Student Code of Conduct and other policies and rules described in this handbook or adopted by the College, are not limited to the main campus and apply to all of the following (collectively defined as “College premises and activities”):

College Premises: Students must comply with all College rules and regulations when they are on the main campus, on any land, other property leased, owned, used, or controlled by the College, or at which the College provides programs or services. This includes, but is not limited to: residence halls.

College Activities and Representation of Wesley College: Students must comply with all College rules and regulations when attending any College activities. College activities are defined as any activity, whether on or off-campus, that is sponsored by and/or funded by the College or its affiliates, or by a student organization, or by any College-recognized or supported organization. College activities also include any event, regardless of sponsor, where students are representing the College or a sponsored organization (see Definitions).

Off-Campus Offenses: The College has the jurisdiction to discipline students for engaging in conduct that occurs off-campus, study abroad, and outside of College premises and College activities, if such conduct adversely affects the vital interests of the College. This includes, but is not limited to: behavior that is disruptive of the education process; behavior that potentially harms the institutional educational interests of the College; behavior that involves another member of the College community; a behavior that threatens or poses a substantial risk to the safety or well-being of students, employees or other members of the College community. The College also has a vital interest in the character of its students, and regards off-campus/study abroad behavior as a reflection of a student's character and his/her fitness to be a member of the student body, even if the student does not pose a direct risk to the College community. Therefore, off-campus behavior that indicates disregard for the health and safety of people or their property, including, but not limited to, criminal conduct, may be subject to disciplinary action by the College.

Student Responsibilities

- 1. Students are responsible for informing themselves of their responsibilities as described throughout this student handbook and in other college publications, and of their rights under the student code of conduct.

- 7. Students have the responsibility to assist and take pride in the maintenance and preservation of college property.
- 8. Students have the responsibility to adopt positive patterns of behavior and values in order to develop a wider understanding of themselves and society.

9. Students are expected to use their varied abilities to make their years at Wesley College a meaningful experience.

Decorum

1. Students are expected to conform to recognized college standards of conduct, behave with decency, and dress appropriately (including, but not limited to: revealing undergarments and saggy pants) while on college premises and during College activities, including academic settings, social events, extracurricular activities, and other public functions.

2. No Cellular Telephone Usage in Classroom – Because of the Emergency Alert System, students should put their cellular telephones on vibration whenever they are in class. Students should not respond to or make telephone calls in class or go outside the class to respond to or make telephone calls. Students should not text whenever they are in class.

Integrity

Integrity must be practiced in all endeavors and relationships on College premises and during college activities. Students found to have engaged in acts of dishonesty, such as: cheating on tests or examinations; plagiarism, alteration or misuse of College documents, records or identification cards; forgery, misrepresentation or any other form of deceit, may lead to dismissal from the college.

COVID-19 Guest/Health & Safety Policies

In efforts to lower risk during the time of the COVID-19 Pandemic, additional policies have been adopted by the College and a few others have changed slightly. Please see the additions below.

Guest Policy:

Any Student currently enrolled at Wesley College may visit the residence halls as a guest. Only current residential students are permitted to be overnight guests. NO OVERNIGHT NON-WESLEY STUDENTS WILL BE ALLOWED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE.

The rest of the Wesley College Guest Policy remain in effect:

- All guests must have a valid Wesley, State, or Federal government issued picture ID. Wesley does not accept IDs from other institutions.
- Overnight guests (current residential students only) are permitted to stay in college housing for a period of no more than two (2) nights within a 7-day period.

Important Reminders about Guests:

- Residents are responsible for the conduct of their guests and are responsible for escorting them into and out of the building at all times. Hosts must be present when guests are signed out. Guests must also be escorted anywhere they go within the building, for single-gender buildings, building specific bathroom policies must be followed.
- Students are accountable at all times for the behavior of any guests and ensuring that the guests comply with all Community Standards and College policies.
- Guests are not permitted to borrow or utilize residents' Wesley ID Card or key to their individual room.

COVID-19 Guest Conduct Policy

Students who show they continually cannot/will not follow these changes implemented due to COVID-19 protocols will be held accountable by the following:

1st Offense: Warning and Educational Packet issued by The Wellness Center Addressing Wesley's commitment to health and safety outlining COVID -19 Policies and recommendations.

2nd Offense: Loss of guest privileges for 1 month

3rd Offense: Loss of guest privileges for 1 semester (16 weeks), Charged with Failure to Comply (10.0), and receive $100 fine

The following policies share a Commitment to the Health and Safety for Wesley's campus during the COVID-19 Pandemic

Facial Covering Policy:

All individuals on campus must wear a face covering, except where doing so would inhibit that individual's health, while in the following places:

- Whenever transiting through campus buildings,
- When in a room with somebody else, excluding while in residential room with roommate
- Outside when at least six feet of social separation cannot be guaranteed.

Note: A "face covering" means a soft cloth or fabric covering that fully covers a person's nose and mouth, not a medical-grade mask. The term "face covering" includes, without limitation, scarves and bandanas. The face covering should be comfortable, so that the wearer can breathe comfortably through the nose and does not have to adjust it frequently, so as to avoid touching the face. As long as medical grade masks such as N95 masks and surgical masks are in short supply, members of the public should not purchase those masks as face coverings under this Order; those medical grade masks should be reserved for health care providers and first responders. Remember that a face covering will not provide protection from getting the virus, but if you are asymptomatic (not showing signs but have the virus) a face covering will limit the dispersal of the virus if you cough or talk – it helps to protect others and mitigate the spread.

Wesley ID Policy:

All members of the Wesley Community must have their College issued Identification Card (College ID) on their person and Visible at all times.

Social Distancing:

Social distancing is a public health practice that aims to prevent sick people from coming in close contact with healthy people in order to reduce opportunities for disease transmission.

All members of the Wesley Community must do their part in following Social Distancing guidelines set by The College:

- Adhering to all COVID-19 Signage informing the College Community (like directional arrows, or closures for areas on campus)
- Maintaining at least six (6) foot social distancing from any individual
- Washing hands with soap and water for at least twenty (20) seconds as frequently as possible or using hand sanitizer composed of at least sixty percent (60%) ethanol or seventy percent (70%) isopropanol,
- Covering coughs or sneezes with something other than one's hands (e.g., elbow, handkerchief),
- Regularly cleaning high-touch surfaces including cell phones and other personal devices
- Not shaking hands.
- Limiting indoor gatherings to less than 10 individuals

COVID-19 Health & Safety Conduct Policy

Students who show they continually cannot/will not follow these policies that aid in the Commitment to Health and Safety in regards to COVID-19 will be held accountable by the following:

1st Offense: Warning and Educational Packet issued by The Wellness Center Addressing Wesley's commitment to health and safety outlining COVID -19 Policies and recommendations.

Purpose

While members of this community contribute a diverse mix of ideas and backgrounds, we hold in common those Codes of Conduct that exemplify personal integrity and ethical behavior and which advance the mission of the College, its traditions and values. The Student Code of Conduct represents both the rights and responsibilities of individual members of the Wesley community and the good of the community, and make it possible for a diverse student body to live, interact and learn together.

Purpose of Wesley's Student Code of Conduct:

1. The Student Code of Conduct helps to motivate good behavior, enhance respect for individual differences and emphasize a commitment to the overall positive welfare of the community.
2. The Student Code of Conduct represents limits and describes examples of behaviors that are unacceptable conduct of students at Wesley College and their guests.
3. The Student Code of Conduct assists students in learning how to assume public responsibilities beyond the campus and in society.

Students may be formally charged with violations of the Student Code of Conduct by Area Coordinators, Public Safety, or other designee as appointed by the Dean of Students. Specific examples of misconduct for which students may be subject to disciplinary action include, but are not limited to, the following:

1.0 – ACADEMIC HONESTY

Wesley College expects that all students will act in a manner that reflects personal and intellectual honesty. All such cases will be heard through the Academic Standing Committee – see the Undergraduate Catalog for specific policies and procedures.

2.0 – ALCOHOL VIOLATIONS

Possession or consumption of any alcoholic beverage by persons under the age of 21 is prohibited. Students and student organizations must comply with the published regulations, and any and all applicable laws, concerning the transport, display, provision, possession, and consumption of beer, wine, and other alcoholic beverages. Illegal possession, use, sale, or distribution of any quantity, whether usable or not, of any drug, narcotic, or controlled substance and/or paraphernalia, is prohibited. Students found present where drugs are being used illegally, whether participating or not, may also be in violation of this policy. The DSS Office will discuss specific guidance as it pertains to Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and ADA Amendments Act (ADAAA) of 2008 for consideration of disability accommodations. Prescribed medication must not be utilized in such a way that violates the College's policies as listed above.

4.0 – HAZING POLICY

Engaging in hazing or voluntarily submitting to hazing, including an initiation by an organization that involves any dangerous, harmful, or degrading act to a student is prohibited. Violation of this policy renders the student(s) involved and the organization subject to discipline. The Wesley College Anti-Hazing Policy is in direct compliance with the State of Delaware Anti-hazing Law, and forbids individual students or student organizations from participating in acts of hazing. "Hazing" is defined as: any action or situation which recklessly or intentionally endangers the mental or physical health or safety of a student, or which willfully destroys or removes public or private property for the purpose of initiation or admission into an affiliation with, or as a condition for continued membership in, any organization operating under the sanction of, or recognized as an organization by an institution of higher learning (For more information about the Anti-Hazing Policy, please see the Student Organization Manual).

Fraternities and sororities are permitted to have intake systems and a process for selecting new members during the Spring Semester of their sophomore year. However, every organization has a solemn obligation in the development of its prospective members. Although much progress has been made, one of the most damaging instruments is a pledging system. Pledging is the employment of a program that may include hazing. The College believes that this unproductive and hazardous custom has no rightful place in an organization intake system. Therefore, pledging and all forms of hazing are strictly prohibited.

The policy and guidelines are provided in the Student Organizational Manual. Forms for off-campus sponsored travel are available in the Student Life Office and the Public Safety Office.
23. Obscene Conduct: Public Urination or other lewd or indecent conduct.
24. Prohibited Entry: Entering or using College buildings, facilities, equipment, or resources, or possession or use of College keys for unauthorized purposes.
25. Loitering: Due to fire safety concerns and for the personal safety of students, loitering is not permitted in front of any residence hall. Any student who stands, and/or sits idle in a group on the steps, sidewalk, or stands or congregates with others in front of a residence hall will be considered loitering. Any student who violates this policy and/or refuses to move when requested by Wesley College Public Safety or Residence Life staff (ACs; RAs) will be formally charged.

GOOD SAMARITAN POLICY

The health and safety of our students is of the highest priority. At times students may need immediate medical or other professional assistance. However, students may be reluctant to get help because of concerns that their own behavior may be a violation of the Student Code of Conduct. To minimize any hesitation students or student organizations may have in obtaining help due to these concerns Wesley College has enacted the following “Good Samaritan” provision.

Although policy violations cannot be overlooked, Wesley College will consider the positive impact of reporting an incident when determining the appropriate response for policy violations. In such cases, any possible negative consequences for the reporter(s) of the problem should be evaluated against the possible negative consequences for the student(s) who needed assistance. At a minimum, students or student organizations should make an anonymous report that would put the student in need in touch with emergency care providers (Police, EMS, etc.). For example, this policy would apply in a situation where a student is reluctant to call an ambulance when a friend becomes unconscious following excessive consumption of alcohol because the reporting student is under the age of 21 and was also consuming alcohol.

The amnesty provision in the College’s Title IX Sexual Misconduct Policy will apply where the terms of that provision are satisfied.

Individual or Group Protest Action Policy

Students are free to support causes by orderly means that do not disrupt the regular and essential operation of the College.

1. All students who wish to organize a group protest, whether or not they are members of a recognized student organization, must follow the same procedures as student organizations to request access to facilities or a location on College premises. The College reserves the right to set limits on the appropriate time, place and manner of the protest.
2. Students may be subject to disciplinary action if they:
 - initiate or participate in a demonstration or any form of protest on campus without following the above procedures; or participate in any activity during an authorized demonstration that obstructs the academic process, interferes with the rights of others on campus, or results in physical violence or property damage.

PROCEDURES FOR STUDENT CONDUCT ADMINISTRATION

Conduct that is alleged to violate the College’s Title IX Sexual Misconduct Policy will be handled in accordance with that Policy. For all other violations, the Dean of Students or designee shall have primary authority and responsibility for the administration of student discipline at Wesley College and for investigating allegations that a student has violated College rules and regulations, or specific orders and instructions issued by an administrative official of the College.

Any member of the College community may file a complaint against a student for violations of the Student Code of Conduct. The report shall be prepared in writing and submitted to the Director of Public Safety or to the Student Affairs office. Any complaint should be submitted as soon as possible after the incident takes place, preferably within two business days. If a conduct complaint has been filed against a student, it is that student’s responsibility to report to security to complete a witness statement for the record.

Process Overview

Any violations of the Wesley College Student Code of Conduct must be reported through an incident report. The report may come from a campus Public Safety Officer, a Residence Life staff member, Law Enforcement Officer, Wesley College student, or any other member of the Wesley College or local community. For instances of sexual misconduct, the incident should be reported in accordance with the College's Title IX Sexual Misconduct Policy.

The timeline for any Investigation of a Conduct violation shall not exceed thirty (30) business days unless due to extenuating circumstances, in which case all parties involved must be notified in writing. If this timeline is exceeded without appropriate notification, the case may be Dismissed, as approved by the Dean of Students.

Standard of Proof

The Conduct process at Wesley College, like many colleges and universities, operates based on a "preponderance of evidence" as the "standard of proof." A preponderance of evidence is described as enough evidence to make it more likely than not that the accused student has violated the Student Code of Conduct.

Educational Conference

Once an incident or violation of the Student Code of Conduct has been reported, the first step will be an Educational Conference. Educational Conferences are held by trained Conduct Hearing Officers, which may be an Area Coordinator, Student Affairs staff member, administrator, or faculty member. The Dean of Students, Student Conduct Coordinator, or a designee will assign each accused student a Conduct Officer for their Educational Conference. A student may elect to bring one Advisor of their choice to an Educational Conference. This Advisor may not speak on the student's behalf. If a student is a minor (under the age of 18) at the time of their Educational Conference, the Conference will be held either with written consent from a parent/guardian or with at least one parent/guardian present.

During the Educational Conference, the accused student(s) and the conduct officer will meet to informally discuss the incident, and the student(s) will be given the opportunity to explain their version of events. In the event that the conduct officer determines that a policy has NOT been violated, then the case and any related conduct charges may be dismissed. If the conduct officer maintains that a policy has been violated, the accused student(s) will typically be given two options: The first option is to accept responsibility for violating the policy; thus, waiving the right to a formal Conduct Board Hearing, and having the conduct officer issue the student(s) their sanctions (outcome). When this occurs, the case is considered RESOLVED at the conclusion of the Educational Conference.

The exception to these two options occurs in cases where a student potentially faces Suspension or Expulsion. Such cases will still have an Educational Conference; however, these will proceed to a Hearing unless indicated otherwise by the Dean of Students.

Students may NOT appeal the outcome of an Educational Conference, since the student is essentially taking responsibility for violating the Code of Conduct, and they are waiving their right to a formal conduct hearing. Additionally, at an Educational Conference, the student is either informed of the exact disciplinary sanctions being imposed, or at a minimum, they will be given a range of possible sanctions being considered, before the student is required to accept responsibility or request a formal conduct hearing.

Students are responsible for checking their Wesley email accounts for information about their Educational Conference. If a student does not attend the scheduled Educational Conference and does not contact the Hearing Officer, the case will be heard in absentia, without the student's input. Students who do not feel as though they have violated the Student Code of Conduct have a second option, which is to request a formal Conduct Board Hearing. All students have a right to a fair and objective Conduct Board Hearing.

INTERIM DISCIPLINARY ACTION

The Dean of Students may take immediate interim disciplinary action, including suspension, pending a hearing against a student for violation of a rule and regulation and when the continuing presence of the student poses a danger to themselves, other members of the community, property, or an ongoing threat of disrupting the academic process. When immediate interim disciplinary action (such as interim suspension) has been taken, hearings will be held under the disciplinary procedures set forth in the Student Handbook but will be held as soon as practicable after the disciplinary action has been taken unless otherwise agreed to by the student.

Conduct Board Hearings

A Conduct Board Hearing will occur when the accused student(s) does not feel they are responsible for violating the Student Code of Conduct.

Conduct Board Hearing Officers are thoroughly trained faculty members, staff members, and students. Students who wish to serve on the conduct board, may apply through the Student Affairs Office. In order for a student to be selected, they must have a clean student conduct record and may not be on any disciplinary probation status. Students must also be in good academic standing, with a minimum 2.50 cumulative Grade Point Average. Eligible students will be interviewed by the Dean of Students, Student Conduct Coordinator, or a designee, and members of the Student Affairs staff. There will be a pool of trained faculty, staff, and student conduct board members. Student Board Members may not serve on Title IX Sexual Misconduct cases; such cases will be handled in accordance with the College's Title IX Sexual Misconduct Policy.

Each Conduct Board for individual incidents or cases will consist of three (3) Conduct Board Hearing Officers. A Conduct Board may consist of the following compositions:

- Two Faculty or Staff members and one Student member
- Three Faculty or Staff members

The student may indicate if they wish to have a "Full Conduct Board Hearing," or a "Sanction Only" Conduct Board Hearing. In the case of full Conduct Board Hearings, the board will determine if the accused student has violated any policy or policies. If the board finds the accused student responsible for violating one or more policy, they will also determine the appropriate disciplinary sanctioning (outcome). A student may opt for a "Sanction Only" Conduct Board Hearing, when their responsibility for the violation has already been acknowledged (for example, they have already accepted responsibility for the violation); however, they do not wish to accept the sanctions being offered at the Educational Conference. In these cases, it is the Conduct Board's task to determine the appropriate disciplinary sanctioning.

Every effort will be made to ensure that each accused student is given a fair and objective Conduct Hearing. Part of this will be making sure that there are no conflicts of interest between a board member and an accused student (i.e. the accused student's academic advisor being on the board, accused student having a personal friendship with any board member, including the student member, etc.). Board members are trained to excuse themselves if there is a significant conflict of interest. Should the accused student feel a conflict of interest may exist, they should immediately bring this to the attention of the Dean of Students or Student Conduct Coordinator upon receipt of the hearing notice.

PROCEDURES

The following procedures will be followed in any case other than alleged violations of the College's Title IX Sexual Misconduct Policy, where the case results in a hearing before the Conduct Hearing Board ("Board"). Alleged violations of the College's Title IX Sexual Misconduct Policy will be handled in accordance with the procedures set forth in that Policy. College Disciplinary Hearings are not legal proceedings.

1. Participants will include the non-voting hearing officiate, three members of the panel, the investigator(s) or designee who conducted the investigation on the grievance, the party bringing an investigation and responding party (ies) (or three organizational representatives in a case where an organization is charged), advisors to the parties and any called witnesses. The hearing official will exchange the names of witnesses the College intends to call, all pertinent documentary evidence and any written findings from the investigators between the parties at least 24 hours prior to the hearing. In addition, the parties will be given a list of the names of each of the hearing panel members at least 24 hours in advance of the hearing. Should either (any) party object to any panelist, they must raise all objections, in writing, to the hearing official immediately. Panel members will only be unseated if the hearing official concludes that their bias precludes an impartial hearing of the grievance. Additionally, any panelist or hearing official who feels they cannot make an objective determination must recuse themselves from the proceedings when notified of the identity of the parties and all witnesses in advance of the hearing.
2. The hearing official, in consultation with the parties and investigators, may decide in advance of the hearing that certain witnesses do not need to be physically present if their testimony can be adequately summarized by the investigator(s) during the hearing. All testimonies summarized by the investigator if the witness is not present must be documented and signed by the said witness. All parties will have ample opportunity to present facts and arguments in full and question all present witnesses during the hearing, though formal cross-examination is not used between the parties. If alternative questioning mechanisms are desired (screens, Skype, questions directed through the hearing official, etc.), the parties should request them from the hearing official at least 24 hours prior to the hearing. If an accused student elects not to appear, the Board will reach its decision on the basis of information available at the Hearing.
3. Once the procedures are explained and the participants are introduced, the investigator will present the report of the investigation first, and be subject to questioning by the parties and the hearing panel. The investigator(s) will be present during the entire hearing process, but will only be present during deliberations at the request of the hearing official. The findings of the investigation are not binding on the panel, though any undisputed conclusions of the investigation report will not be revisited, except as necessary to determine sanctions/responsive actions. Once the investigator(s) is/are questioned, the hearing panel will permit questioning of and by the parties. Questions may be directed through the panel at the discretion of the hearing official.
4. Formal rules of evidence will not apply. Any evidence that the panel believes is relevant and credible may be considered, including history and pattern evidence. The hearing official will address any evidentiary concerns prior to and/or during the hearing, may exclude irrelevant or immaterial evidence and may ask the panel to disregard evidence lacking in credibility. The hearing official will determine all questions of procedure and evidence. Anyone appearing at the hearing to provide information will respond to questions on their own behalf. Unless the hearing official determines it is relevant and appropriate, no one will present information or raise questions concerning: (1) incidents not directly related to the possible violation, unless they show a pattern, or (2) the sexual history of or the character of the victim/party bringing a grievance.

5. There will be no observers in the hearing. The hearing official may allow witnesses who have relevant information to appear at a portion of the hearing in order to respond to specific questions from the panel or the parties involved. The panel does not hear from character witnesses, but will accept up to two letters supporting the character of the individuals involved. Both the responding party and the party bringing the investigation are permitted one advisor or support person of their choosing. This person's name must be provided to the hearing officiate at least 24 hours in advance. The advisor's role in the hearing is limited. They may write notes or communicate quietly with the student they are advising. The advisor is not permitted to directly address the members of the hearing board or any witnesses. The advisor may not offer any testimony to the board. If an advisor does not follow these expectations, they may be asked to leave.
6. In hearings involving more than one accused individual or in which two parties bringing an investigation have accused the same individual of substantially similar conduct, the standard procedure will be to hear the investigations jointly; however, the Dean of Students or designee may permit the hearing pertinent to each responding party to be conducted separately. In joint hearings, separate determinations of responsibility will be made for each responding party.
7. Proceedings are private. All persons present at any time during the hearing are expected to maintain the privacy of the proceedings, subject to Wesley College consequences for failure to do so. While the contents of the hearing are private, the parties have discretion to share their own experiences if they so choose, and should discuss doing so with their advisors.
8. Hearings are recorded for purposes of review in the event of an appeal. Hearing panel members, the parties and/or the persons who initiated the action, and appropriate administrative officers of Wesley College will be allowed to listen to the recording in a location determined by the Dean of Students or designee. No person will be given or be allowed to make a copy of the recording without permission. Persons given access to the recording will be required to sign an agreement confirming that they will protect the confidentiality of the information contained in the recording.

Decisions

1. The Hearing Panel will deliberate in closed session to determine whether the responding party is responsible or not responsible for the violation(s) in question. The panel will base its determination on a preponderance of the evidence (i.e., whether it is more likely than not that the accused individual committed each alleged violation). If an individual responding party or organization is found responsible by a majority of the panel, the panel will recommend appropriate sanctions to the Dean of Students or designee.
2. The hearing official will prepare a written deliberation report and deliver it to the Dean of Students or designee detailing the findings and the information cited by the panel in support of its recommendation. The report should conclude with any recommended sanctions. This report should not exceed two pages in length and must be submitted to the Dean of Students or designee within two (2) business days of the end of deliberations.
3. The Coordinator of Student Conduct will notify the students of the final determination within 5 business days of the hearing, without significant time delay between notifications. Notification will be made in writing and may be delivered by one or more of the following methods: in person; mailed to the local or permanent address of the parties as indicated in official Wesley College records; or emailed to the parties' College-issued email account. Once mailed, emailed and/or received in-person, notice will be presumptively delivered.

4. Once an Investigation is completed, the timeline for all further Student Conduct proceedings shall not exceed thirty (30) business days unless due to extenuating circumstances, in which case all parties involved must be notified in writing. If this timeline is exceeded without appropriate notification, the case may be Dismissed, as approved by the Dean of Students.

Sanctions

Sanctions or responsive actions will be determined by the Hearing Panel. Factors that may be considered when determining a sanction may include, but are not limited to:

- The nature, severity of, and circumstances surrounding the violation;
- The circumstances accompanying any lack of Consent;
- The Respondent's state of mind (bias-motivated, reckless, negligent, etc.)
- The Respondent's prior disciplinary history;
- The safety of the College community;
- The Respondent's conduct during the investigation and resolution process;
- The need for sanctions to bring an end to and prevent discrimination, harassment and/or retaliation;
- The need to remedy the effects of the discrimination, harassment and/or retaliation on the Complainant and the College community; and
- Such other factors as the panel deems appropriate.

Appeal Procedures

All requests for appeal considerations must be submitted in writing within three business days of the delivery of the written finding of the Hearing Panel.

1. A three-member panel led by the Dean of Students who was not involved in the investigation previously will consider all appeal requests. Any party may appeal, but appeals are limited to the following:
 - A procedural error or omission occurred that significantly impacted the outcome of the hearing (e.g. substantiated bias, material deviation from established procedures, etc.).
 - To consider new evidence, unknown or unavailable during the original hearing or investigation, that could substantially impact the original finding or sanction. A summary of this new evidence and its potential impact must be included.
 - The sanctions imposed are substantially disproportionate to the severity of the violation.
2. The Dean of Students will review the appeal request(s). The original finding and sanction/responsive actions will stand if the appeal is not timely or is not based on the grounds listed above, and such a decision is final.
3. Where the Dean of Students finds that at least one of the grounds is met, and proceeds, additional principles governing the hearing of appeals include the following:
 - Appeal decisions by the panel are to be deferential to the original decision, making changes to the finding only where there is clear error and to the sanction/responsive action only if there is a compelling justification to do so.
 - Appeals are not intended to be a full rehearing of the investigation. In most cases, appeals are confined to a review of the written documentation or record of the original hearing, and pertinent documentation regarding the grounds for appeal. Appeals granted based on new evidence should normally be remanded to the original hearing panel for reconsideration. Other appeals may be remanded at the discretion of the Dean of Students or heard by the three-member panel.

- Sanctions imposed are implemented immediately unless the Dean of Students or designee stays their implementation in extraordinary circumstances, pending the outcome of the appeal.
- The Dean of Students or designee will normally, after conferring with the appeals panel, render a written decision on the appeal to all parties within 30 business days from receipt of appeal.
- Once an appeal is decided, the outcome is final: further appeals are not permitted.

SANCTIONS

The Conduct Officer or Conduct Hearing Board shall render a decision to both parties as soon as practicable as to if the accused student is responsible for violations and shall, if necessary, assess a penalty or penalties. These penalties, which are not exclusive, but may be imposed together with other penalties, include, but are not limited to:
