Wesley College implemented specific methodology to determine which students receive Emergency Financial Aid Grants through the CARES Act, and how much they receive. The college plans to distribute funds to as many students as possible while focusing on those with the greatest financial need. Using the application responses and any follow up documentation, reviewers verify eligibility based on CARES Act specifications and demonstrated need due to disruption of college operations.
Demonstrated needs considered include, but were not limited to:
  o Medical expenses, food, housing payments, utilities, technology, relocation costs, unexpected child care, course materials, as well as other unexpected expense to students due to the pandemic.

Further evaluation is based on:
  o Title IV Eligible as determined by filing a 2019-2020 FAFSA.
  o Enrolled during the Spring 2020 semester in an eligible program.
  o Making Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP).

Eligible applicants are awarded based on FAFSA eligibility, Expected Family Contribution (EFC), and demonstrated need. The total maximum award was $5,200.
